

FINDING MATHEMATICAL BOOKS

Mathical Book Prize

<http://www.mathicalbooks.org/>

The Mathical Book Prize is an annual award for fiction and nonfiction books that inspire children of all ages to see math in the world around them.

School Library Journal: 31 Days, 31 Lists

<http://blogs.slj.com/afuse8production/>

Each December, Collection Development Manager Betsy Bird wraps up the year with a fantastic collection of kid lit lists. Watch out for the Math Picture Books post! Follow Betsy on Twitter @fuseeight.

DREME (Development & Research in Early Math Education)

<https://dreme.stanford.edu/blog>

DREME offers many free resources for caregivers and teachers. Their math book blog posts share reading guides with helpful strategies for how to identify and highlight math concepts in picture books.

MORE MATH RESOURCES FOR PARENTS & PROFESSIONALS

Too Small to Fail

<http://toosmall.org/lets-talk-about-math>

Dive into STEM and learn about how to support math development from birth and beyond! From video clips to talking tips, this landing page is a treasure trove of early math resources. Be sure to download the “Let’s Talk About Math” Highlights Guide.

Erikson Early Math Institute

<https://earlymath.erikson.edu/>

Math is much more than counting! Learn about the wide and wonderful world of math by exploring the “Big Ideas.” Look at the Idea Library for math games, books, and more!

NAEYC (National Association for the Education of Young Children)

<https://www.naeyc.org/resources/topics/math>

Keep up to date with the latest early math research, best practices, and ideas for families/early childhood professionals with NAEYC! Be sure to browse through the “Math at Home” toolkit.